The Cover

Designed by Bob Bauer. Spotlights 100 Years of Michigan Football and includes a few of the men involved in that century of success: Clockwise: Rick Leach (7), Bo Schembechler, Ron Kramer, Fielding H. Yost, Harry Kipke, the 1947 National Championship Team, Bennie Oosterbaan, Fr[illegible] Crisler, Tom Harmon.

1979 Outlook

Position Sketch

"We may kick on first down and wait for them to make a mistake," joked Coach Bo Schembechler when asked to evaluate Michigan offense for 1979.

The Wolverine defense just might have the talent to turn Bo's sense of humor into a game plan this season. At least, it would not back down from the challenge. Defense, of course, will be the key to Michigan's success.

But defense has played that role before. NCAA statistics reveal that over the last five-year period (1974-78) Michigan leads the nation in rushing defense (114 yards per game), total defense (230.1 yards) and scoring defense 8.3 points).

Offensively, Michigan must avoid injuries but does have the talent to produce touchdowns. Here is a position breakdown for 1979 — the 100th season of Michigan football:

QUARTERBACKS

There are six candidates — four upperclassmen and two freshmen — waiting in line to succeed Rick Leach. B.J. Dickey, John Wangler, Gary Lee and Jim Paciorek head the list. The only two rookies are Rich Hewlett and Steve O'Donnell.

RUNNING BACKS

Another rebuilding area where Stan Edwards, who missed entire '78 season with an injury, could be outstanding along with speedster Butch Woolfolk. Lawrence Reid and hopefully help from freshmen will provide the new look, which could include split backs as well as the I-formation.

RECEIVERS

"The finest group I've had at Michigan," says Bo. Ralph Clayton (All-American candidate) tied 'M' record with 8 TD grabs. Rodney Feaster, Tony Jackson, Alan Mitchell are good deep threats, TE Doug Marsh had 6 TDs.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Injuries to Bubba Paris, John Powers, John Arbeznik cloud this area, but center George Lilja and tackle Mike Leoni both veterans, and such young players as Mark Warth, Chuck Rowland Kurt Becker, Ed Muransky, Dan Kwiatkowski have good potential. An overall question mark.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The best Bo has had at 'M'. Curtis Greer may be the finest tackle in college football. Mike Trgovac has been named top freshman, now top sophomore at 'M'. Dale Keitz returns, along with Chris Godfrey, Dave Nicolau and freshman Cedric Coles.

LINEBACKERS

Ron Simpkins needs just 12 tackles to become all-time 'M' leader. Teams with Andy Cannavino on inside. Mel Owens-Ben Needham will be good replacements for Meter and Seabron.

SECONDARY

Mike Jolly, Mike Harden (both all-Big Ten) and Mark Braman key to 'M's' nationally ranked pass defense in '78. Stu Harris moves in at strong safety. Depth should be adequate.

KEY NEWCOMERS

Bubba Paris — Started two games as a freshman, must recover from knee surgery. Fine offensive tackle prospect.
Tony Jackson — Also letterwinner as freshman. Excellent receiver and runner. Will back up Ralph Clayton.
Gary Lee — One of two impressive sophomore quarterback prospects. Will battle for No. 1 spot. Has great speed, strong arm.

Bo's Comments on Key Wolverines for 1979

JOHN POWERS, OT — "Regarded as one of the two top offensive linemen in college football. Amazingly quick and a great competitor."

RALPH CLAYTON, WB — "Has all the qualities required for greatness. Led the Big Ten in yards per reception and will be even better this season."

STAN EDWARDS, TB — "Missed last season because of an injury, but probably has as much talent as any runner we've had at Michigan. His speed, balance, strength make him extremely dangerous."

CURTIS GREER, DT — "We just could not block him during the spring. He has a combination of speed and strength that should make him the dominate tackle in our conference."

RON SIMPKINS, LB — "Without a doubt the finest linebacker in the Midwest. He's extremely dedicated as a football player. He along with Greer are the keys to our defense."

MIKE JOLLY, DB — "A three-year starter for us, Mike has an uncanny ability to find the football. You don't want to pick on his area too often, because he can burn you."

MIKE HARDEN, DB — "He keeps improving every season and this year should be his best. He and Jolly were All-Big Ten selections last year."

Jim Paciorek — Another soph QB candidate. Continues to improve. Great all-around athlete, varsity baseball infielder.
Cedric Coles — One of the few sophs to figure heavily in the defense. Will back up Curtis Greer. A superb athlete who could play.
Butch Woolfolk — Gained 131 yards as a starter against Minnesota last season and will be used extensively this season.
Mark Warth — Has strength and speed to play guard or tackle. Mised entire season as a freshman, but was impressive in spring.
Ed Muransky — Has great potential as an offensive tackle.
Chuck Rowland — Another of the fine young freshmen offensive linemen who will battle for a starting job.

Meet Bo Schembechler

"We have to find a quarterback who can lead the team and hope our young offensive linemen come around. Our defense will be good. Michigan will be a factor in the Big Ten championship race."

Michigan's Decade of Success

Glenn E. 'Bo' Schembechler has a problem that has not appeared at Michigan in three years — selecting a quarterback to lead the Wolverines.

Actually, rebuilding the offensive unit — two starting tackles, the center and two running backs in addition to QB Rick Leach were lost — looms equally as challenging. The defense, however, could be the best in college football with linebacker Ron Simpkins and tackle Curtis Greer rated among the nation's premier players.

Schembechler has faced rebuilding jobs before as Michigan has compiled a 96-10-3 record during the last decade, including an Orange Bowl and five Rose Bowl appearances. During the regular season Bo's record in the Big Ten is 69-8-1, while his teams are 27-1-2 against nonconference teams. His only nonconference regular season loss was in 1969 (Missouri).

Michigan, in fact, is the only team to be rated in the Top Ten by the final AP and UPI polls in each of the last 10 seasons. Those teams have produced 20 All-American players.

Schembechler (pronounced SHEM-beck-lur) is just the 13th coach in the history of Michigan football. He came from Miami University of Ohio where his teams posted a 40-17-3 record, including two Mid-American Conference championships, in six seasons.

He took over the head coaching position at Michigan in December of 1968 after Bump Elliott, who had guided the Wolverines to an 8-2 record, resigned to become Michigan's associate athletic director.

Defensively, the Wolverines still operate the angle-five and feature quickness rather than size. From 1974 through 1978, Michigan led the nation in scoring defense (8.3 points per game) and rushing defense (114.0) yards per game) and was rated first nationally in total defense (230.1). Over this same five-year period, the Wolverine offense ranked third in scoring (32.1 points), second in rushing (309.6) and third in total offense (403.6).

Schembechler has been voted Coach of the Year nationally (1969) as well as in the Mid-American (1965) and Big Ten (1972) conferences. Eight of his assistant coaches have gone on to head coaching positions at major colleges, including Jim Young (Purdue) and Gary Moeller (Illinois) in the Big Ten.

The former Barberton, Ohio, prep football all-stater was an offensive tackle at Miami for three years. He played under George Blackburn and Woody Hayes and also was a fine lefthanded pitcher for Miami.

He graduated in 1951 and received a master's degree in 1952 at Ohio State where he served as a graduate assistant coach. After serving in the U.S. Army, he was a line coach at Presbyterian College in 1954, a line coach at Bowling Green in 1955, then joined Ara Parseghian's staff at Northwestern in 1958. He was appointed head football coach at Miami of Ohio in 1963.

Schembechler confines most of his non-football hours to his family and charity events, including the cancer society and the Mott Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor fund raising projects.

Schembechler annually conducts a coaching clinic for high school coaches that is regarded as one of the most informative such events in the nation. He also attends a series of alumni gatherings during the summer. Schembechler is featured in a weekly television show over the Detroit ABC station (WXYZ) during the football season.

Bo and his wife, Millie, have four children: Chip, Geoff, Matt and Shemy.

The Staff

Michigan's Assistant Coaches

Jerry Hanlon (HAN-lun)
Offensive Line

Jerry Hanlon coaches Michigan's offensive line. Hanlon, from North Bend, Ohio, was an offensive halfback during the 1953-55 seasons at Miami. He played halfback on the Redskin teams that won two Mid-American Conference titles. His college coach was Ara Parseghian.

As a player, Hanlon's college teams achieved a 24-2-1 record, while his teams at Taylor High School were 25-7-1.

Following graduation from Miami, Hanlon returned to Taylor for a year as assistant football coach, then coached at Canton Catholic, Youngstown and Cleveland St. Edwards before joining the staff at the University of Dayton in 1964. The following year he joined Schembechler at Miami.

He has been in charge of Michigan's offensive line since 1969. Those lines have keyed an assault on most team rushing records. Seven All-American linemen have been developed under Hanlon in seven seasons. Last spring Jerry was made an honorary "M" Club member.

Hanlon is married to the former Anne Hatfield, a native of Norma, Tennessee. The couple has two sons, Scott and Mickey, and a daughter, Kelly Ann.

JERRY HANLON

"Injuries and inexperience cause question marks in the offensive line. How quickly the young tackles adapt and fit into the offense will be important, particularly early in the season."

Paul Schudel (Shu-DEL)
Offensive Interior Line

Paul Schudel, a former player and graduate assistant at Miami of Ohio under Bo Schembechler, rejoined his former boss in 1975 as a member of the Michigan football staff.

Schudel developed two All-American linemen in 1977, center Walt Downing and guard Mark Donahue, who repeated his '76 selection.

Schudel served as offensive line coach at Syracuse during 1974 for former Michigan assistant Frank Maloney. Prior to that, Schudel spent two years as offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at William and Mary, two years as offensive line coach at Colorado State, two years in the same duties at New Hampshire and two years as a graduate assistant at Miami.

Schudel graduated from Swanton (Ohio) High in 1962 after earning 11 letters. He played three years as offensive tackle for Schembechler at Miami and was tri-captain his senior year and earned Academic All-American honors. Schudel graduated in 1966 with a Bachelor of Science Degree with a major in mathematics and received his masters degree in education from Miami in 1968.

Schudel is married to the former Mary Burkhart of Perrysburg, Ohio. They have two children, Jennifer and Glenn.

PAUL SCHUDEL

"The interior line should be solid and have the necessary depth if everyone recovers from their injuries."

Tirrel Burton
Offensive Backfield

Tirrel Burton, who has produced several outstanding pass receivers, including Bo Rather, Paul Seal and All-American, Jim Smith, is now the backfield coach.

Burton, who joined the Wolverines staff in 1970 as freshman coach and took over the receivers in 1972, enjoyed a long and successful career at Miami of Ohio, both as a player and coach. He even played high school football at Oxford.

Burton was an outstanding halfback at Miami, twice being named All-Mid-American Conference. He averaged 8.8 yards per carry and scored 84 points his senior year, both records. Burton also starred in track, winning his way to the NCAA 220 hurdle finals in 1955. He was elected to Miami's Sports Hall of Fame for both football and track.

Burton graduated from Miami in 1956, played a year of pro ball with the Ottawa Rough Riders, then taught and coached in Cincinnati on the junior and senior high levels for nine years. He was offensive and defensive backfield coach at Central State of Ohio for a year before returning as an assistant coach to Miami of Ohio where he completed his master's degree.

Burton and his wife, Sue, have two children; Ellen and Mark.

TIRREL BURTON

"Huckleby and Davis will be missed, but Stan Edwards and Butch Woolfolk had good spring practices and have game experience. Lawrence Reid must have a great senior year. We have an excellent group of young backs, any of whom can help."

Don Nehlen (KNEE-lin)
Quarterbacks/Receivers

Don Nehlen, who coached Bowling Green State University football teams to a 53-35-4 record for nine seasons, joined the staff in 1977 as backfield coach. In a 1979 staff realignment, he took charge of the quarterbacks and receivers.

Nehlen worked closely with quarterback Rick Leach, who broke most of Michigan's passing records.

Nehlen, an All-MAC quarterback who also played basketball and baseball, was elected to BGSU's Athletic Hall of Fame, Feb., 1979.

Nehlen earned a reputation of engineering upsets at Bowling Green. His 1972 team shocked Purdue, 17-14, upended Syracuse, 41-14, the next season, held favored San Diego State to a 21-21 tie in 1974 and defeated Brigham Young, 23-21, in 1975. Nehlen quarterbacked Bowling Green to a three-year 21-2-4 record, including the 1956 Mid-American Conference title. He coached at Canton South High and Canton McKinley in Ohio and was an assistant at the University of Cincinnati before joining the Bowling Green staff as defensive coordinator in 1965.

Nehlen was appointed head coach at BG in 1968. He resigned in 1976 following a 6-5 record.

Nehlen is married to the former Merry Ann Chopson of Akron. They have a son, Danny, and a daughter, Vicky.

DON NEHLEN

"Clayton, Feaster, Mitchell and Jackson all return. Zeke Wallace and Fred Brockington are impressive and with the addition of Anthony Carter this fall we should have the best group of wide receivers in the Big Ten."

Bill McCartney
Defensive Coordinator

Bill McCartney, who coached Dearborn Divine Child to state championships in football and basketball, joined the Michigan staff as defensive end coach in 1974.

McCartney, served as defensive end coach for three years and became defensive coordinator in 1977 replacing Gary Moeller. He also coaches inside linebackers.

McCartney earned 11 letters at Riverview High School where he captained the football and basketball squads and played baseball. He was a three-year letterman as a linebacker at Missouri, playing in two Orange Bowl games, and was named second team All-Big Eight.

At Divine Child, McCartney compiled a 30-5 won-loss record in four years as head football coach. His teams won three Detroit Catholic League Championships and two state titles (1971, 1973). His basketball teams at Holy Redeemer and Divine Child were 157-49, winning the Detroit Catholic title in 1969 and the state Class B title in 1973.

McCartney, who is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and his wife, Lynne, have three boys, Michael, Thomas, Mark, and a girl, Kristyn.

BILL McCARTNEY

"Michigan's defense over the last three seasons has led the nation in the three most important categories and I'm confident that the talent we have this season, barring unfortunate injuries, will continue that type of excellence."

Dennis Brown
Outside Linebackers

Dennis Brown, in his seventh season as a Wolverine coach, has had a long association with Michigan. He was the Wolverines' starting quarterback in 1967 and 1968. In 1968 he led the Big Ten in total offense and was named All-Big Ten, leading 'M' to an 8-2 record and second place in the conference.

A graduate of Lincoln Park High, Brown came to Michigan and stepped into the starting quarterback role midway through his junior year. In his first game, he broke the Big Ten total offense record.

Brown spent one season as a graduate assistant to Bo Schembechler in 1970 before going to Dartmouth as the freshman coach for a year. He returned to Michigan to work with the backfield and to serve as varsity-reserve coach. Brown took charge of the outside linebackers in 1977.

Brown married the former Carla Shinn of Lincoln Park. They have a son, Aaron, and a daughter, Lauri.

DENNIS BROWN

"We're excited about our potential at outside linebacker. Mel Owens and Ben Needham represent the two finest athletes we've had at one time playing those positions. Finding depth is our main concern and as of now this has not been solved."

Jack Harbaugh (HAR-baw)
Defensive Backs

Jack Harbaugh came to Michigan from Iowa in 1973 as coach of the defensive backs.

Harbaugh is a native of Crestline, O., where he was an All-State football and baseball player. He went on to Bowling Green where he once again played football and baseball, and was drafted by the Buffalo Bills football team.

He received both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green and coached at Canton, Perrysburg and Eaton high schools. He went to Xenia High in 1966, where he was conference coach of the year.

In 1967 Harbaugh took an assistant's job at Morehead State and stayed there a year before returning to Bowling Green where he coached three seasons before going to Iowa to take over the defensive backs.

Harbaugh has developed a steady line of outstanding defensive backs, including two-time All-American Dave Brown and All-American Don Dufek. He also has been able to successfully switch players to new positions as he did with safety Dwight Hicks, who became a consensus All-Big Ten selection in 1977 as a rover back (wolf).

Harbaugh and his wife, Jackie, have three children; John, Jim, and Joan.

JACK HARBAUGH

"With the type of veteran players returning from the 1978 squad, we expect a strong performance and excellent leadership from the secondary."

Milan Vooletich (VULE-la-tich)
Defensive Line

Milan Vooletich, starting his second season at Michigan, coaches the defensive tackles and middle guards. He coached the defensive backs at the University of Colorado.

Vooletich had coached at Colorado since 1974 as the Buffalos compiled a 29-14-1 record. In addition to his four years there with Bill Mallory, Vooletich coached the linebackers at Miami of Ohio from 1969-73, also under Mallory. Vooletich joined the college ranks after coaching football and track at Sandusky (Ohio) High School from 1964-69. Among his players were Wolverine graduates Tom Darden, Bo Rather, Brian Healy and Werner Hall.

Milan has a private pilot's license. He likes to ski and is an avid reader.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., where he attended Carrick High School, Vooletich played offensive and defensive back at Geneva College in addition to being captain of the track team. Vooletich graduated in 1964 and was President of the Varsity Club. Vooletich and his wife, Rosemary, have two sons, Daniel and Brian.

MILAN VOOLETICH

"Avoiding injury, our interior line could be as good as it's ever been. Of course, we're always looking for depth. We want our young players to improve."

Bob Thornbladh (THORN-blade)
Special Assistant

Bob Thornbladh from Plymouth works with both the offense and defense. He joined the staff in 1975 as a graduate assistant following a year of playing professional football with the Kansas City Chiefs. He played four years of football for Bo Schembechler, including three years as a letterwinner (1971-73). He gained 677 yards rushing, losing only two yards in 163 carries as a fullback on Wolverine teams that compiled a 31-1-1 regular season record. Bob, who graduated from LS&A School in 1974 and is working on his masters, married the former Christine DeCorte. They have a son, Justin.

BOB THORNBLADH

Fritz Seyferth
Recruiting Coordinator

Fritz, a former Michigan fullback (1968-71), is in charge of coordinating all recruiting efforts for the athletic staff. He was honorable mention All-Big Ten in 1970 and supplied the key block on Billy Taylor's touchdown run in the 1971 win over Ohio State that capped an undefeated, untied season. Gained 529 yards rushing in his career.

Fritz, who has a degree in industrial engineering from Michigan, was drafted by the N.Y. Giants and played for the Calgary Stampeders before joining B.F. Goodrich Co. as an internal consultant. He worked for Arthur Young & Co. as a management consultant before joining the athletic department. He married the former Lynn Groves of Ann Arbor and they have two children, Sean and Courtney.

FRITZ SEYFERTH

Mike Gittleson
Weight & Conditioning

Mike, a physical education major from Plymouth State College (NH), is in charge of Michigan's comprehensive strength and conditioning program. He lettered in football, wrestling and track. At Michigan he won the Paul Hunsicker Award for academics and extracurricular activities while working on his master's degree in exercise science.

Mike has competed as a power lifter, coached soccer at Ashland High in N.H., and was named the outstanding senior in physical education at Plymouth State. He married the former Carolyn Poznanski of Manchester, N.H.

Simpkins Sparkles

Michigan broke open a 10-0 game with 21 points in the fourth period as Rick Leach scored two touchdowns, ran for 96 yards and passed for 75 yards. Michigan's defense held Illinois to just 157 yards in total offense. The victory was a costly one for Michigan as offensive tackle Bill Dufek broke a bone in his foot and would be on the sidelines until the Minnesota game. Leach was the Offensive Champion, while linebacker Ron Simpkins was the Defensive Champion and also the UPI's Defensive Player of the Week. He made 12 tackles.

Leach Keys Win

Michigan rallied for three touchdowns in the second half to defeat Notre Dame in the first game played between these teams since 1943. Rick Leach again was outstanding as he ran for Michigan's first touchdown to tie the game at 7-7, then fired touchdown passes of 5 yards, 17 yards and 40 yards in the second half. His three TD passes tied a Michigan record. Leach passed for 110 yards and ran for 23, while Harlan Huckleby pounded out 96 yards to lead the Michigan attack.

Jerry Meter had a pass interception and a dozen tackles to earn Defensive Champion and ABC-TV's Defensive Player of the game. Leach was ABC's Offensive Player and both the AP and UPI's Offensive Player of the Week. The coaches voted center Steve Nauta the top offensive award. Linebacker Mel Owens suffered a pinched nerve and was lost for the season, while tight end Gene Johnson injured his knee and missed the next two games.

Keitz, 'Huck' Star

Michigan scored late in the first period, but Arizona, coached by former Wolverine assistant coach Tony Mason, shocked another 100,000-plus crowd in Michigan Stadium by scoring the next 17 points. It took a 30-yard touchdown pass from Rick Leach to Doug Marsh with just 3:58 left in the first half to get the Wolverines back in the game. Michigan launched a 68-yard, fourth quarter drive and finally on fourth down Russell Davis punched it in for the winning TD with just 5:25 left to play. Harlan Huckleby, who gained 104 yards in just 18 carries, was the Offensive Champion, while middle guard Dale Keitz with 13 tackles and a blocked punt was the Defensive Champion.

First since '69

Michigan State took a 17-point lead at halftime and went on to post its first victory over the Wolverines since 1969. The Spartans ran for 248 yards and passed for 248, the most total offense ever produced against a Bo Schembechler defense at Michigan. Michigan tried to get back into the game in the third period as Rick Leach scored to make it 17-7, but Ed Smith tossed his second TD pass and Michigan could never catch up. Harlan Huckleby, who gained 98 yards, and Russell Davis with 85 yards shared the Offensive Champion Award, while linebacker Ron Simpkins was named Defensive Champion. Leach, who went through the entire season with just four interceptions, had three of them in this game. Ohio State on this Saturday also lost to Purdue.

Win No. 600

Michigan rebounded from its first defeat of the season as Rick Leach scored two touchdowns and passed for a third to lead the Wolverines to their fifth victory of the season and their 600th in 99 years of intercollegiate football. Michigan gained 360 yards rushing and Leach passed for 101 of the 117 yards in the air, including a 65-yard strike to wingback Ralph Clayton, who was named Offensive Champion. Harlan Huckleby rushed for 98 yards before he was injured and freshman track sprinter Butch Woolfolk made his varsity debut by gaining 32 yards in six carries. Leach, who gained 44 yards rushing, was named the AP's Offensive Player of the Week, while defensive back Mike Harden was named the Defensive Champion by Bo's staff. The 80,024 crowd was a Camp Randall Stadium record.

5 TDs for Rick

Minnesota became a 'red letter' game for the Wolverines immediately after the Gophers upset the Wolverines 16-0 in Minneapolis in 1977. Rick Leach took charge of the 1978 Homecoming Game by accounting for five touchdowns, three on passes and two by running. His 26-yard pass to Ralph Clayton and his eight-yard run gave Michigan a 14-3 halftime lead. Leach personally accounted for three touchdowns in the third period to cement the victory and return the Little Brown Jug to Ann Arbor. Freshman Butch Woolfolk made his first start at tailback and gained 131 yards in 22 carries, including a 49-yard touchdown run. Leach added 62 on the ground and 143 in the air as the senior quarterback was named AP's Offensive Back of the Week and Michigan's Offensive Champion. Ron Simpkins was named Defensive Champion.

Simpkins Leads 'M' To 313th Shutout

Rick Leach fired a pair of TD passes and moved Michigan 191 yards in the air despite playing less than three periods as the Wolverines rolled to their seventh victory of the season. Roosevelt Smith gained 70 yards in place of the injured Harlan Huckleby and Butch Woolfolk added 41. Ralph Clayton continued his excellent play as a pass receiver, catching three for 81 yards. Guard Greg Bartnick was named Offensive Champion, while linebacker Ron Simpkins with 11 tackles, two for losses, and a fumble recovery was named Defensive Champion for the fourth time this season and was named the AP's Defensive Player of the Week. It was the fourth shutout of the season and the 313th shutout victory in Michigan football history.

Leach Tops NCAA, Big Ten Records

Rick Leach, playing just five minutes more than two periods, accounted for five touchdowns, as Michigan continued to push toward its eighth championship in the last 10 years. Leach scored on a yard run, passed 9 yards to Ralph Clayton, passed 41 yards to Ralph Clayton, ran 12 yards for a touchdown and five yards for another before retiring to the bench with more than 10 minutes left in the third period. Michigan tied a Big Ten record with 37 first downs and the 28 first downs by rushing was one short of the 'M' team record. Leach gained 43 yards rushing and 131 yards passing to break the Big Ten's total offense record, while Harlan Huckleby had 138 yards on the ground in his first action in three weeks. Leach also broke the NCAA record of touchdowns accounted for with 77.

Davis, Defense Dazzle

Rick Leach fired two touchdown passes to help Michigan to a 17-0 halftime lead and the Wolverines rolled to a 24-6 win over previously undefeated (in the Big Ten) Purdue, which had allowed Wisconsin to gain a 24-24 tie the previous week. The victory was Michigan's fifth straight and set up a championship and Rose Bowl showdown-in Columbus with Ohio State. Fullback Russell Davis, who was to become the only unanimous All-Big Ten offensive selection by the coaches, broke loose for 134 yards rushing while Leach had 90 on the ground and 54 passing. Davis was the Offensive Champion while linebacker Jerry Meter was the Defensive Champion. Simpkins and middle guard Mike Trgovac shared the AP's Defensive Player of the Week Award.

Wolverines Win Title, Bowl Trip

Michigan won its eighth Big Ten title in 10 years and third straight trip to the Rose Bowl by defeating Ohio State before a record crowd. It was the second televised game of the season for Michigan and for the second time Rick Leach was named Player of the Game on offense as he fired two touchdown passes, completed 11 of 21 for 166 yards and rushed for 23 yards. Michigan played without the services of tight end Mark Schmerge, tailback Harlan Huckleby, outside linebacker Tom Seabron and offensive guard John Arbeznik. Leach was named Michigan's Offensive Champion as well as ABC's offensive Player of the Game. Curtis Greer, a quick tackle, was the Defensive Champion for the second time in three games. Ron Simpkins, one of the finest linebackers ever at Michigan, accounted for 15 tackles, while his counterpart at OSU, Tom Cousineau, had 21 tackles.

Controversial TD Keys USC Win

Michigan's Wolverines played one of their finest defensive games in years, but a combination of circumstances and a relentless Southern California ground attack lifted the Trojans to a 17-10 victory in the 65th annual Rose Bowl Classic in Pasadena. A turnover, an intercepted pass that was returned to Michigan's 16-yard line, set up USC's first touchdown that came on a Paul McDonald to Hoby Brenner pass covering nine yards.

Michigan later drove to the USC 21, but a dropped pass forced Gregg Willner to boot a 36-yard field goal. Then came the most controversial call in the history of the Rose Bowl. USC had a second down on the Michigan 3 when tailback Charles White dove between guard and tackle. The ball popped loose and was recovered on the one-yard line by Jerry Meter. The official (line judge) ruled, however, that White had crossed the goalline with the ball in his possession and gave USC the controversial touchdown and a 14-3 lead.

Late in the first half, Michigan tried to pass, but USC came up with an interception, and as time ran out on the scoreboard Marty King kicked a 35-yard field goal for a 17-3 lead at halftime. Coach Bo Schembechler said later he would not have been passing had USC not scored the second touchdown. Bo considered the touchdown a 10-point play. Before the interception, Michigan had gambled on a fourth and six situation on the USC 36, but failed to make the first down.

Midway through the third period Leach tossed a 44-yard scoring pass to tailback Roosevelt Smith to narrow the deficit to 17-10. Michigan moved from its 11 to the USC 48 in its last drive in the fourth period, but was forced to punt and the Trojans ran out the clock. Leach set three Rose Bowl career records: total plays (94), total yards running and passing (523) and most yards passing (452). Leach, who was voted coplayer of the game with Charles White, had already set the record for longest TD pass, 76 yards, in 1978.

Of Colors, Song And Michigan

Michigan's athletic traditions date back more than a century ago. Students, as early as 1861, referred to themselves as Wolverines, and, of course, Michigan is known as the Wolverine state. The graduating class of 1867 selected Maize and Blue as the school colors. Michigan's famed fight song, "The Victors", was written in 1898 by Louis Elbel to commemorate a last-second, 12-11 victory over Chicago that produced the Wolverines' first Western Conference football championship. In 1903 a five-gallon jug used for drinking water was left in Minnesota and six years later the Gophers and Wolverines played a football game that became known as the battle for the "Little Brown Jug." When Coach Fritz Crisler arrived at Michigan in 1938 he wanted to "dress up the plain, black football helmet" used at that time. The result was the distinctive winged-helmet still used by today's Wolverines.

†NCAA Record

The University

Academically, Michigan ranks among the foremost universities in America. A survey of professional school deans not long ago rated U-M in the top 10 in 13 of the 18 professional areas surveyed, "the best overall record" in the words of The Los Angeles Times. The survey found "Five universities with outstanding reputations — Berkeley, Chicago, Columbia, Harvard and Michigan — have the greatest numbers of top-ranking professional schools."

Other recent surveys have found the following: more Ph.D. degrees (2894) were awarded by U-M from 1973 through 1976 than from any other U.S. college or university; the College of Engineering was first for graduate level academics in three of seven fields surveyed; deans of business administration schools placed the employment value of a U-M M.B.A. degree among the top five and rated Michigan's executive programs among the top four; more top business executives earned degrees from U-M than from any other public college or university; and medical school faculty members ranked U-M among the top eight such schools.

U-M students appreciate this, evidently. The majority of students in 554 classes recently rated 90 per cent of their courses as "excellent". Ninety percent of the classes rated the instructor as an excellent teacher. The U-M faculty survey noted the results are quite different from the sterotype of the large, "mass education" university one hears about.

Michigan's 17 schools and colleges cover the spectrum of human knowledge. To them for an education have come more than 249,000 degree holders, including the three-man crew of Apollo 15. Every year about 18 per cent of the student body comes from all the other states in the nation, while another 3.7 per cent are from some 100 other countries.

During 1977-78 research volume at Michigan totaled $83,257,602. Projects ranged from abstract theoretical studies of the atom to methods of reducing the number and severity of highway accidents. The monthly survey of consumer sentiment is a nationally respected barometer of the nation's economic health. Practical holography or three-dimensional photography was invented at Michigan, while the scholarly renowned Middle English Dictionary is being compiled on the campus.

On the North Campus, the Phoenix Project has for three decades sought peaceful uses of atomic energy. A few hundred feet away, the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library is being constructed to house the papers of one of Michigan's most famous alumni.

The Medical Center's 25 buildings comprise one of the largest concentrations of health care facilities in the world. The area includes one of the nation's major medical schools, the largest baccalaureate school of nursing, and the nation's first University Hospital.

Michigan's faculty includes 11 members of the National Academy of Sciences and many presidents of national scholarly organizations. The U-M library system is the fourth largest university system in the country, with more than five million volumes.

The University is truly a state resource and a national asset.

Meet Michigan's President

Allan F. Smith became The University of Michigan's interim president in January following the retirement of Robben W. Fleming, who became president of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

Smith is no stranger to the University's Administration Building, having served the U-M as vice-president for academic affairs from 1965 to 1974, when he returned full-time to teaching as professor of law.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska Law School, Smith later earned two degrees from Michigan. He joined the U-M faculty as an assistant professor of law in 1947, becoming a professor of law in 1953 and dean of the Law School in 1960.

He has been a visiting professor at Stanford, Hastings College of Law, and the University of Georgia.

Smith is author and co-author of four legal books. He holds an honorary degree from the University of New Brunswick.

He has served on many professional societies and their committees. He is a member of the Michigan, Washtenaw County, and American Bar Associations.

Thomas J. Anton
Faculty Representative

Tom Anton begins his first year as Michigan's faculty representative, the third person to hold that position since Ralph Aigler first was appointed in 1915. Anton, a professor of political science, replaces Marcus Plant, Michigan's distinguished professor of law and former president of the NCAA who retired after 24 years of service.

Anton, who received his master's and Ph.D. degrees from Princeton, was a four-letter winner in both baseball and basketball at Clark University in Massachusetts and co-captain of the basketball team. A resident scientist in Michigan Institute of Public Policy Studies, Anton's major athletic endeavor now is golf.

Meet Don Canham

Don Canham moves into his second decade as Michigan's athletic director the way he began his first decade — promoting special events, overseeing championships and planning for the future.

That's the way it was 11 years ago when Canham became just the fifth athletic director in the history of Michigan athletics. He immediately launched new programs designed at increasing football ticket sales, packed more than 90,000 fans in Michigan Stadium for a pro football exhibition (revenue from this helped finance a new sports service building) and watched a series of championships recorded.

That Big Ten championship total now stands at a record 206 and 18 per cent of these (38) have come under Canham's stewardship. The Wolverines have broken all NCAA football attendance records for the last three seasons. And more of these special events are coming up.

Canham's latest venture was to pair Slippery Rock and Shippensburg State in a Michigan Stadium football game, add the nation's largest Band Day and promote a sellout. The Celebrity Golf Tournament and a Hall of Honor Night which recognizes former Michigan athletic greats was a summer feature, while the Michigan Open Golf Championship, like the State High School Basketball championships, have found a home at the U/M.

During the last decade Canham has earmarked more than $4 million for plant expansion and improvements. This continues. Additionally, he was a key mover in the $7.2 million construction of new recreational sports facilities that gave Michigan one of the largest indoor complexes in the nation, some 333,000 square feet.

Other projects completed in the last decade include: construction of a sports service building which houses the football team and includes a large weight training room; construction of the indoor Track/Tennis building which is used for varsity and university recreational purposes; remodeling of Yost Fieldhouse into an 8,100-seat ice arena; construction of an all-weather outdoor track; construction of an artificial surface practice field with lights; improvements on the baseball stadium; and a continuing renovation program for Michigan Stadium.

These projects, coupled with the building wisdom of Fielding H. Yost and Fritz Crisler, afford Michigan one of the finest athletic complexes in the nation.

Building administrative and coaching staffs has been his priority. Two of Canham's former assistants, Dave Strack and Bump Elliott, now supervise successful athletic departments at Arizona and Iowa, respectively. Promotions and retirements have forced complete turnovers in all but one sport, but the tradition of winning remains.

Michigan's intercollegiate program includes 22 varsity sports for men and women with an annual budget in excess of $6 million. The department is self-sufficient.

Nationally, Canham serves on various Big Ten and NCAA committees. He is invited by other universities and business groups to speak on promotion and administration. He has been elected to the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and the U.S. Track and Field Federation Hall of Fame.

Canham was Michigan's track captain and NCAA high jump champion during his undergraduate years. He served in the Army Air Force, coached and taught at Kankakee, Ill., High School, was an assistant track coach at Michigan for two years before being named head coach in 1948. His Wolverine teams won 12 Big Ten titles in 19 years. During this time he built a highly successful sports equipment business that was placed in trust upon his appointment as athletic director.

Canham and his wife, Marilyn, have a son, Don Jr., and a daughter, Clare, both University of Michigan graduates.

'M' Band

Glenn A. Richter will become the new Michigan Marching Band Director for 1979. He replaces George Cavender who was with the Michigan Bands for 26 years. Richter, who left his position as Director of Bands at The College-Conservatory at The University of Cincinnati to join the Michigan faculty, was previously Conductor of the Symphonic Band at The University of Texas in Austin, and Director of Bands at the Lyndon B. Johnson and the Reagan High Schools, Austin, Texas.

The Marching Band has grown from 15 members in 1857 to its present size of 250. With many appearances on national television and in the Super, Orange and Rose bowls, the Michigan Bands have established a tradition known across the nation.

The Indiana game on October 27 will be Homecoming and the Michigan Band will feature former bandspeople who are returning for their annual "Blast from the Past."

The Marching Band will accompany the football team to East Lansing on October 6 for the Michigan-Michigan State game. The Marching Band will once again host Band Day on September 29 at the Slippery Rock-Shippensburg game, while the Wolverines are in California.

Marching Band fans can still obtain copies of the album entitled "Halftime Classics" featuring the 250-member Marching Band.

Michigan Football Awards

Each year, three special awards are given to players on the Michigan football team. The awards are the John F. Maulbetsch Award, the Meyer Morton Award, and the Frederick C. Matthaei Scholarship Award.

Maulbetsch Award

The John F. Maulbetsch Award is given to the freshman football candidate after spring practice on the basis of desire, character, capacity for leadership and future success both on and off the gridiron. It was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1954 in honor of the late John F. Maulbetsch, All-American halfback on the 1914 team.

Meyer Morton Award

The Meyer Morton Award is given to the football player who shows greatest development and most promise as a result of the annual spring practice. The award is given in honor of the late Meyer Morton, noted Big Ten official.

Matthaei Award

The Frederick C. Matthaei Award is given to the junior-to-be gridder who has displayed leadership, drive, and achievement on the athletic field and in the classroom. The award was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1968.
